

the rope with an equal distance between them. You are now ready to make the first 'tuck'. From above the Crown Knot should look like this:

With the marlinspike or nail, lift one of the strands of the rope immediately below the Crown Knot and pass the end of one of the strands underneath it. Pull tight.

